

Location

GLENWORTH VALLEY HORSE RIDING CENTRE:

Located just one hour from the centre of Sydney.

Address: 69 Cooks Road, Peats Ridge 2250

Featuring huge battlefields (up to 15 acres!) in magnificent Aussie bush, this is perfect for new recruits and veterans alike. There are a variety of fields, including "Heartbreak Hill", allowing for plenty of new experiences. Situated in Australia's largest horse riding venue, there's something here for everyone.

Please take care when driving in Glenworth Valley, as we share the roads with horse-riders.
GETTING THERE \(printable version\)

Click here to use Bing Maps to obtain directions from any address. Please note that Google Maps often sends you the long way as there is an error in the way they have mapped the Peats Ridge Rd off-ramp.

Travelling north from Sydney on the F3 Freeway

14km north, after the Brooklyn Bridge, take the Peats Ridge exit (Calga Interchange) and follow all the signs leading to Glenworth Valley Horse Riding. The Glenworth Valley exit is 3kms off the F3 Peats Ridge exit.

Travelling south from Gosford and Newcastle on the F3 Freeway.

2kms after the Mooney Bridge, take the Peats Ridge exit and follow all the signs to Glenworth Valley Horse Riding. The Glenworth Valley exit is 3kms after the F3 Peats Ridge exit.

Once you have entered Glenworth Valley Horse Riding

Follow the signs towards the horse riding centre, until you reach the bottom of the valley. When you have reached the valley floor, you will see a sign directing you to the First Strike Laser Skirmish base camp.

This map shows more detail. Click on the map for the full version.

Original map provided by Central Coast Tourism. Modified and used with permission.

